ANI • Last Updated: Aug 26, 2022, 05:31 PM IST

Synopsis
Circular strategies such as circular design, material efficient production, reuse, repair and recycling lead to saving in material consumption and reduce greenhouse gas emissions. By focusing on maximum value retention and closing material recycle, the circular economy possesses robustness that will help in dealing with drastic changes caused by climate change.

Consensus seems to have emerged across the globe that a circular economy is the only way towards conservation of resources and the metal sector needs to be at the forefront of this economic model, Union Minister for Steel and Civil Aviation Jyotiraditya M Scindia said on Friday.
